

This is the identical volume recorded by Dr. Dibdin (see as belonging to Daniel Moore Esq. of Lincoln's Inn . . . It placed by the Doctor (and very justly) among the First important book: being full thirteen inches in height, eight with the true portrait & titlepage, & the genuine Verses facing the titlepage . . . There are no spurious leaves, & it is sound to the end . . . Of this particular Four the the best. That in the Cracherode Collection has the same son facing the titlepage, inlaid - In the copy in the of some of the latter leaves have been damaged by a copy - though a very fine one - has been in part washed and beautifully in red morocco by Charles Lewis) rebound . . . old binding - unwashed, unsized; genuine and pure.

It was privately purchased by Mr. Pickering, Bookseller, John Guy Kokelode Esq. (to whom it descended from his in January 1841. . . and within forty eight hours after a becoming "consideration" became my property. Mr. newly-acquired treasure to nobody but myself, having he ever be fortunate enough to obtain a matchless copy a parcel of it . . . . . George Daniel. Cambridge